

Supporting Events

We've a massive range of Supporting Events going on in the area, starting the weekend before the Mega Event, and carrying on until the Tuesday after. We hope there is something to interest everyone.

The majority of the events are within easy reach of our Camping Event, which is being held just below the Racecourse in Cartmel Park.

Saturday 4th August

Afternoon: Another Mega Day Out in the Country

Following their 'Mega Day Out' event at Mega2010, Scottiedogz are holding a welcome social event in Cartmel Park, bring a cake and a mug!

Sunday 5th August

Daytime: Picnic on the Pike

A chance to join your fellow cachers on a group walk up England's tallest mountain, Scafell Pike. Bring your own picnic!

Evening: A Cartmel Crawl

Our non-traditional traditional pub social event, visiting several of the village pubs. A perfect chance to plan your activities in the days to come.

Monday 6th August

Daytime: Wainwright Walk

Our group walk to the top of Hampsfell promises glorious views across Morecambe Bay and down to Cartmel itself.

Tuesday 7th August

Daytime: Limestone Features on Humphrey Head

An educational walk exploring a nearby headland and nature reserve.

Early Evening: Calling All Road Travellers Mini Event Location

The first of three events hosted by The Imp, this one at Burton Services on the M6.

Wednesday 8th August

Daytime: Crawl up Coniston

A group walk to the summit of Coniston Old Man, one of the peaks overlooking Coniston Water.

Afternoon: Swallows and Amazons Forever!

A family adventure event on the shores of Coniston Water, exploring one of the locations that inspired the classic children's books.

Teatime: Clanging Around Rattling Tins Making Everyone Laugh

The Imp's second event, a short flashmob event in Grange over Sands.

Evening: Exploring the Dark Night

Another event in Cartmel Park, celebrating the 'Year of the Bat', including a guided Bat Walk (limited places).

Thursday 9th August

Daytime: Welcome Cuppa in Cumbria

Break up your journey up or down the M6 with a cuppa.

Afternoon: Teddy Bears Picnic

Join Sheriff Ted and friends for a picnic on the shores of Lake Windermere.

Evening: On the Trail of the Pendle Witch

Our night cache event in Cartmel Park, there is a Lancashire Witch on the loose, can you find her?

Friday 10th August

Daytime: Chapel Island Picnic

A group tidal walk to the site of a 14th Century chapel, in the middle of Leven Sands.

Afternoon: Pottering about with Pooches

A dog friendly walk along the western shores of Lake Windermere, the landscape which inspired many of Beatrix Potter's stories.

Late Afternoon/Evening: The Mega Rodeo

Our Rodeo themed Camping Event opens it's doors to all. Don your Stetson, grab your hobby horse, and saddle up for much fun, games, beer and dancing.

Sunday 12th August

Morning: Ready Steady Go to Mega 2013

Come and meet the Mega2013 Team at Arnside Pier, they'll be eager to tell you of their plans for next years Annual Mega Event before waving those brave enough to attempt the next event.....

Daytime: Morecambe Bay Walk

A serious group tidal walk across the sands of Morecambe Bay, starting from Arnside.

Led by the "Guide to the Sands", Cedric Robinson MBE.

Afternoon: Family Woodland Stroll

A family friendly figure of eight walk in the village of Hincaster, perfect for those not willing or able to attempt the Morecambe Bay Walk.

Monday 13th August

Morning/Lunchtime: Deci's Traditional Mega Bun and Brew

As you are packing up for home, return to Cartmel for one last time to join Deceangi and the Linedancers for a spot of tea and cake.

Evening: Sunset on the Mega

A gentle walk up Orrest Head, overlooking Windermere, perfectly timed to see the Sun set on a memorable week of Geocaching.

Tuesday 14th August

Lunchtime: Can Anyone Remember The Mega Event \(Lake District\)

The Imp's final event on the Devil's Bridge in Kirkby Lonsdale, a short detour off the M6 for anyone travelling home after leaving the campsite on Tuesday morning.